

Margaret Saraya

An Introduction to Soraya Photography

Soraya Photography is run by myself, Margaret Soraya, an experienced full time professional photographer who has been photographing weddings for 14 years.

I photograph weddings and elopements throughout the Highlands of Scotland and on the Scottish Islands.

Through minimal posing I unobtrusively capture your wedding day. I work in a documentary style with a little direction during the family and couple shots. The rest of the day is kept very relaxed, allowing me to capture the real and expressive images you see in my portfolios.

I am passionate about landscape photography as well so I am able to perfectly meld couples and landscape together to produce images that go beyond traditional wedding photography.

I am based in the Highlands and photograph large weddings at venues including fabulous castles such as Aldourie and Skibo Castle, beautiful exclusive use houses such as Achnagairn Estate and Aultmore House to small elopements on the beaches of the Outer Hebrides and amidst the stunning landscape of the Isle of Skye.

My photography has won many awards and appeared in several publications.

COUPLE & ENGAGEMENT SHOOTS £350

Couple shoots can be for those who have booked their wedding photography with myself or just for those looking for a beautiful reminder of their time in Scotland together. Whether recently engaged or not quite yet!

Up to two hours photography on location in Scotland, I always plan the day so we can visit multiple locations to get a variety of landscapes.

These shoots always work well if you have a particular enjoyment of a place or an activity. If you love walking on the beach, taking your dogs out or have a special place that means something to you. I am open to ideas but equally can find locations for you.

I work closely with the stunning Fort Augustus Abbey on the shores of loch ness which provides an indoor option!

All edited images will be delivered on a USB in high resolution.

ELOPEMENTS from £750

Eloping to Scotland are very popular if you are looking for a simple outdoor ceremony in some of the most beautiful scenery imaginable. I offer bespoke coverage options for elopements as each one is different so just get in touch for pricing.

There are many choices as to where to elope to - some of the most popular destinations include the dramatic landscapes of the Isle of Skye and the sweeping beaches of the Isle of Harris.

As an outdoor lover and a frequent traveller to the islands, I know many hidden locations as well!

Your elopement photography will always be tailored to your needs. Without having to think about guests, you can decide what suits you best. Get in touch and we can talk! info@sorayaphoto.com

IT'S THE LITTLE THINGS THAT MAKE ALL THE DIFFERENCE

I have been a wedding photographer for 14 years and have photographed over 500 weddings of all different types in all different seasons!

When you book me to photograph your wedding, you are also booking a nice person who will blend in and get on with your guests. Being a quiet, unobtrusive and pleasant photographer on the day is guaranteed!

Whatever your wedding plans, I am able to cope with them. I have photographed celebrity weddings in exclusive use castles with security clearances and privacy clauses to very small intimate beach weddings for couples who elope by themselves to remote beaches.

I personally edit your images in Lightroom. Selecting the very best images for you and lightly enhancing each image for you.

All the files are supplied in high resolution in a bespoke gift box for you to keep. All images are watermark free and therefore you are not bound to purchase prints after the wedding. No hidden costs!

All your images are uploaded to a client viewing area after the wedding so your friends and family can view and purchase their own prints after the wedding. You do not have to do anything!

Travel costs are included to all Scottish locations - including the Scottish islands. Beyond Scotland, a small travel charge may apply.

I have won many awards over the years for my photography and am well respected within the industry. I was recently named overall Scottish Master Photographer of the Year 2017 by the Master Photographers Association

No need to supply a wedding meal on the day - I come fully prepared with all my own sustenance!

I am an outdoor lover and come well equipped for any condition. Whether that be a wedding involving a hike into the mountains or just walking down to a shore for a few mins. Rain is no problem -- and equally bright sunshine is absolutely fine!

I travel in my van round Scotland and the islands frequently, so am very knowledgeable about locations. If you need help planning your wedding on any of the islands, just ask!

Why book Soraya Photography - Kind Words

Amanda & Devon
Isle of Harris beach

I know that it's been a few months since you shot our wedding photos on Harris. I was looking at some this morning and I thought, "Damn, these are good." So I just wanted to write you and thank you again for your Herculean efforts to get to us and fantastic photos that resulted.

Thank you.

Lorna & Colin
Crieff Hydro & Luskentyre beach

Wow! We are both over the moon with these photos. Everything we wanted, thank you so much,
L and C x

Heloise & George
Isle of Coll

Margaret is unbelievably talented and a complete joy to work with. We have just received our album through the post and we couldn't LOVE it any more. The perfect combination of stunning landscapes and telling the story of our very special day. Book Margaret now!

Joanne & Phil
Glenfinnan House Hotel

Margaret took our wedding photos in June and we are both delighted with the pictures. Would highly recommend Margaret to anyone looking for a wedding photographer. Also, we were expecting to have to wait a while for the disc but we received it in the post 2 weeks after the wedding. Plus she's a really nice lady.

Ian & Daphne
Loch Ness

Engaging Margaret for our wedding photoshoot was an excellent decision! Her eye for photography and angles translated to beautiful pieces of art. It was a joy to work with Margaret who allowed us to focus on each other and have great fun posing for her! Thank you Margaret for creating such wonderful memories for us in Inverness!

Holly & Iain
West brewery, Glasgow

We are thrilled with our wedding photos; Margaret captured the feeling of the day perfectly but we barely knew she was there - very stealthy! She was very organised with the group photos leaving us plenty time to just enjoy the day; we would highly recommend her.
